Summary of reasons for decision:

The video file explicitly depicts a young teenager engaged in solo sexual activity, apparently at the direction of a webcam viewer. It is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes. The video can only be for the purpose of sexually arousing those with a prurient interest in young persons. It presents young persons as sexually active and aware, and as appropriate subjects for adult sexual fantasy and desire. It has the effect of encouraging and legitimising such an interest. As a video file it can be shared widely among like-minded individuals, further exploiting the girl. The video may also be used for the purpose of grooming other young persons for sexual exploitation. This classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as affirmed by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, however it is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications that promote and support the sexual exploitation of children and young persons are deemed objectionable. The classification also reflects the concern of New Zealand society to protect its young and vulnerable members from exploitation.
